100 Women Giving Back to the Lowcountry

…a group of women seeking to make immediate and sizable impacts in our community through combined giving while having fun and building friendships.

Nomination Presentation Guidelines

If the organization you nominated is selected for consideration at a meeting, you will have five minutes to make your case and five minutes to answer questions from the membership. Only the member nominating the nonprofit can give the presentation. Representatives from the organization nor another 100 WGBLC member may give your presentation. Making a compelling case will take some planning. Please contact the nonprofit ahead of time so you are well informed!

PIQUE OUR INTEREST
Start with an engaging opening line. ("Every month, 75 women in our community are involved in a domestic violence dispute.")

WHO ARE THE PLAYERS?
State your name and the name and location of the organization you've nominated.

FACTS TELL
You might consider sharing facts such as:
- the service area of the organization and whom they serve
- the organization's mission statement
- what they do and how their services benefit our community
- the size of their annual operating budget and how much they spend on administration/fundraising
- how our funds will be used specifically
- is this a new or existing program
- how many people/animals the funds will impact
- whether the program is essential and what our community will miss if it does not get funded
- why you are passionate about this charity

STORIES SELL
- It helps to focus on a specific program that needs funding and talk about the people that particular program will benefit and what it accomplishes in your community.
- Don't forget to tell a story of a person/animal positively affected by the organization and how it made a difference in their life.
- Tug at the hearts of the chapter as much as you inform our heads.

REMEMBER
- Keep it simple…No PowerPoints, Videos, or Handouts
- Relax…Tell your story as you would to your friends…because, in fact, you are.
- We're here to raise money, but we're also here to HAVE FUN!…No stress allowed. ;)
